A draft or nonidentical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term. As used herein, “THING” also means any tangible item(s), other than a “DOCUMENT” as defined herein, which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

9. “AFFILIATED” and “AFFILIATION” shall mean any type or kind of relationship between two persons or entities, including an employer-employee relationship, an independent contractor relationship, or a contractual relationship.

10. The document Requests herein shall be deemed to include any and all documents and things within the possession, custody, or control of ALLIANCE.

11. ALLIANCE shall respond with all responsive information. With respect to any document responsive to this Request that is withheld from production based upon a claim of privilege, please provide the information required pursuant to Rule 26(b)(5) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, identifying without limitation: 1) the type of document withheld; 2) its date, if any; 3) its possessor; 4) the name, position and business affiliation of its author(s) and recipient(s); 5) its general subject matter; 6) the number of pages; 7) the paragraph of the Request to which it is responsive; and 8) the nature of the privilege claimed.

12. If, for reasons other than a claim of privilege, you refuse to produce any document requested herein, state the grounds upon which the refusal is based with sufficient specificity to permit a determination of the propriety of such refusal, including, but not limited to, a description of 1) the type of document withheld; 2) its date, if any; 3) its possessor; 4) the name, position and business affiliation of its author(s) and recipient(s); 5) its general subject matter; 6) the number of pages; and 7) the paragraph of the Request to which it is responsive.

13. If ALLIANCE objects or otherwise refuses to respond or produce documents in response to any portion of a document request, ALLIANCE shall provide all documents and information called for by that portion of the request for production that ALLIANCE does not object to and/or which ALLIANCE does not refuse to respond as follows:

(a) If ALLIANCE objects to a document request on the ground that it is too broad (i.e., if ALLIANCE believes it calls for information outside the scope of permissible discovery as defined by Rules 26 and Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure), ALLIANCE shall produce documents and things in response to that Request by producing all documents and things that are within the permissible scope of discovery and identify all categories of documents being withheld;

(b) If ALLIANCE objects to a document request on the ground that to produce documents and things would constitute an undue burden, then ALLIANCE shall produce as many of the requested documents and things as can be provided without undertaking an undue burden;

(c) If ALLIANCE objects to any portion of a document request on the ground that it is vague or indefinite, then ALLIANCE shall set forth its understanding of the allegedly vague or indefinite term and shall then produce documents and things based upon that stated understanding.

14. In the event that multiple copies of a document exist, produce every copy on which appear any notations or markings of any sort not appearing on any other copy.

15. If any of the documents requested herein are no longer in ALLIANCE's possession, custody or control, identify each such requested document by date, type of document, person(s) from whom sent, person(s) to whom sent, and person(s) receiving copies, and provide a summary of its pertinent contents and identify the PERSON or ENTITY in whose possession, custody, or control the document was last known to reside.

16. If any document responsive to these Requests has been destroyed, describe the content of such document, the location of any copies of such document, the date of such destruction and the name of the person who ordered or authorized such destruction.

17. The documents produced in response to these Requests shall be organized and designated to correspond to the categories in these Requests or, if not, produced as they are maintained in the normal course of business, and in either case:

- (a) all associated file labels, file headings, and file folders shall be produced together with the responsive documents from each file and each file shall be identified as to its owner or custodian;
 - (b) all documents that cannot be legibly copied shall be produced in their original form; otherwise, you may produce photocopies;
 - (c) all photocopies shall be stapled or clipped as the originals; and
 - (d) each page shall be given a discrete production number.
18. Produce documents responsive to individual Requests as soon as possible and without waiting to produce documents responsive to other Requests whenever possible.
19. Unless otherwise specified, all terms shall be interpreted as they are used in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. These Requests and the terms used herein shall be construed to require the fullest and most complete disclosure permitted by law.
20. Words and phrases are to be given their ordinary meaning and shall not be unduly or restrictively construed so as to avoid responding to the fair scope of the interrogatories.
21. None of the definitions or Requests set forth below shall be construed as an admission relating to the existence of any evidence, to the relevance or admissibility of any evidence, or to the truth or accuracy of any statement or characterization in the definition or Request.
22. The term “relating to” shall have the same meaning as the term “concerning.”

23. The term “including” shall be construed broadly to mean “including but not limited to” or “including without limitation.”

24. The singular form of a word shall be interpreted as plural, and the plural form of a word shall be interpreted as singular, whichever makes the Request most broad.

25. As used herein, “any” and “all” shall each be construed to mean “any and all,” so as to acquire the broadest meaning possible.

26. As used herein the present tense shall also include the past tense.

27. “And” and “or” when used herein shall be construed conjunctively or disjunctively as necessary to make each Request inclusive rather than exclusive.

28. “Each” shall be construed to include and encompass “all.”

29. Any pronoun shall be construed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neutral gender, in singular or plural, as in each case is most appropriate.
